PRESIDNET'S MESSAGE

By Ron Artstein, Temple President

Happy summer, everyone! I am honored to be taking on the role of President. I am grateful for all the support I have received leading up to this role and looking forward to a productive two years. I am excited to work with our amazing clergy and professional staff, and a great cadre of lay leaders both on and off the Board. In this, my first column as President, I would like to tell you a little bit about myself.

I was born and raised in Jerusalem, and moved to Tel Aviv for my university studies. I spent time in New Jersey while studying at Rutgers University, moved back to Israel and lived in Haifa, then in England for a few years. We finally settled in Long Beach in 2007 when my wife, Nancy, got a job as a Linguistics professor at Cal State. I too am a linguist, and for the past two decades I have been working in language technologies. Nancy and I have three children – two in college and one in high school. I became a U.S. citizen in 2010 (at the citizenship ceremony, the judge noted that our Governor at the time was also an immigrant). I am still very much in touch with Israel, and we visit regularly since my family all live there.

As a secular Israeli, I honestly find it somewhat surprising to be part of a Reform Temple, let alone President. As a friend in New Jersey once commented to me, in Israel you don't need to go to shul to feel Jewish. Indeed, for many years I didn't feel this need, and we only joined the Temple when my daughter Carmel wanted to have a bat mitzvah in 2018.

What we found in Temple Israel is a loving community and a deep sense of connection. Since joining I have become more involved, first in committees and then on the Board, serving as Secretary and Vice President of Ritual Practices before assuming my current role.

Having experienced various ways of practicing Judaism, there are many things I appreciate about the Reform movement, not the least of which is the acceptance of interfaith families like ours. I also appreciate that since October 7, 2023, the Reform movement has been steadfast in calling for the release of the hostages – all of them – and defending Israel's right to exist peacefully, while also expressing empathy for casualties on all sides, condemning the excessive use of force, and demanding that we stick to our principles, for example by declaring that starving Gaza is immoral (Rabbi Rick Jacobs in the Washington Post, May 12, 2025). At a time when parts of the Jewish world turn towards the rhetoric of self-righteousness and self-absorption, I am proud to be affiliated with a movement that has the courage to speak out.

I'd like to end this column with a small mystery. At Temple Israel we have a mobile ark which we use for Torah services outdoors – for example, at the Rosh HaShanah Celebration in the Park which will take place next month. This ark has a curious decoration: a reverse Nun character on each door. What is the significance of this decoration, and why is it placed on the mobile ark? Please write to me with any thoughts or guesses; I'll reveal the answer in next month's column.

WELCOME NEW MEMBER - SHERRI SOBEL

I was raised in Philly in an unusually zany, huge family. Ditto friends. Temple University ( go Owls! ). First marriage, usual Jewish doctor. Two fabulous kids. High school English teacher , inner city all-boys high school. Moved to California for residency. He ziggled, I zagged. Had lunch the day of the divorce. Law school. Child welfare lawyer in San Diego. Remarried 11 years later to Craig. Bliss for 30 years. Will miss forever. Los Angeles Superior Court, 25-ish years. ( still sit Christmas to New Years). Wrote a book. Active in NCJW. Read. Read. Theater, ballet, symphony. Kids still fabulous. Not as fabulous as Bennet, the perfect grandson.

It's been a ball, so far, looking forward to Temple Israel.

קשר TEMPLE ISRAEL Kesher 8th-12th Grade

Max Perler
ANDI President

Summer is in full swing! While we eagerly await the start of the school year, the ANDI Board has already had two summer meetings (and more ahead!) to plan events and programs for the year, a couple of which are new. While our board members' exciting ideas are in the works, many of them are also attending Jewish summer camp --including two of our NFTY SOCAL Regional Board Liaisons, who are in the Dominican Republic for Camp Mountain Chai's "Kavanah" service trip. Amazingly, three other board members are also attending CMC in the picturesque Angelus Oaks near Big Bear, and our new 8th-grade representative spent a month in beautiful Santa Rosa, at URJ Camp Newman. In total, over half of the Board is participating in a Jewish camp or activity this summer. Looking ahead at the TI Shabbabeque, which will be held at the JCC on Friday, August 15, the ANDI Board will be leading the service put together by our Religion and Culture VP, Asher Kain-O'Grady. The service will be followed by a mixer and activities planned by our Membership and Programming VPs, Gaby Ibarra and David Quintana. All Kesher teens are encouraged to attend; it's going to be a lot of fun. On Saturday, September 6, ANDI will host our annual Welcome Back event, which officially starts the Kesher year. Held at a park near Youth Director Kara Liu's home, there will be fun games and Havdallah put together by the aforementioned VPs, as well as the rest of the Board. In other news, our Financial VP, Elizabeth Dobrofsky, has designed amazing "merch" for the Boards so that we can represent ANDI wherever we go, including NFTY SoCal's retreats throughout the year. Registration for Fall Kallah, a memorable weekend at Bob Waldorf, opens in August. Finally, check out our Instagram page @andi_tyg, where our new Communications VP, Samantha Axel, is already hard at work. You can keep up with what Kesher Teens and the ANDI Board are up to throughout the year on this account. I'm looking forward to seeing everyone at Temple Israel when Torah Center starts. Have an amazing rest of your summer.

Mazel Tov to This Month's B'nai Mitzvah

Niko Dickstein - August 2, 2025

Hi, my name is Niko Vu Dickstein. I was born in Vietnam, where I lived for a few years before moving to California. I live with my older brother, Luca, my mom, dad, and dog, Chuy. I play the piano, love listening to music, snowboarding, and eating good food. But most of all, I love soccer, which I play everyday for hours. I've played soccer since I was about 4 years old.

For my mitzvah project, I volunteered at AYSO EPIC, which is a program that helps kids with special needs play soccer. When that season ended, I created my own soccer clinic at the park, where I helped them get better. Learning about Jewish history, singing prayers, building community, and gaining new friendship at Torah center is important to me. I can't wait to celebrate my bar mitzvah with everyone that has had an impact on my life.

Eloise Levenshus - August 9, 2025

Hi I'm Eloise Levenshus and on August 9, 2025 I will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah. I am very excited to get to lead the morning service, as leadership is one of my main interests. I am an active member of my Student Council ASB at Rogers Middle School, and the incoming Vice-President of Student Council for the 25-26 school year. My favorite sport is soccer, and I have been playing since I was 4 years old. I currently play for the 2012 Team for AYSO United Pacific in Los Al. I am passionate about being a good leader, a good teammate, and a great role model for my community.

For my Mitzvah Project I wanted to do something that combined the three things I love. Animals, soccer, and helping others. So for the past 8 months I have been working with the SPCALA and several AYSO programs, dedicating my time to refereeing soccer games, volunteering in the AYSO VIP program, and creating dog beds, cat toys, and dog ropes for the SPCALA.

David and Dylan Quintana - August 23, 2025

Dylan and David both have grown up to be active, curious, and thoughtful young men. Each has his own unique personality and interests, but they share a deep love for sports, family, and making the most out of life.

David, the older of the two, is entering his senior year at Long Beach Woodrow Wilson High School. Turning 18 this year, he has always been passionate about playing all kinds of sports. Extremely competitive, determined, and driven, David thrives on the field and court, yet he is also kind, sweet, and very thoughtful. He has made countless friends growing up and continues to be surrounded by a strong group of people who enjoy his positivity and intelligence. In addition to sports, David enjoys video games and spending time outdoors, especially swimming, and beach trips with his friends and family.

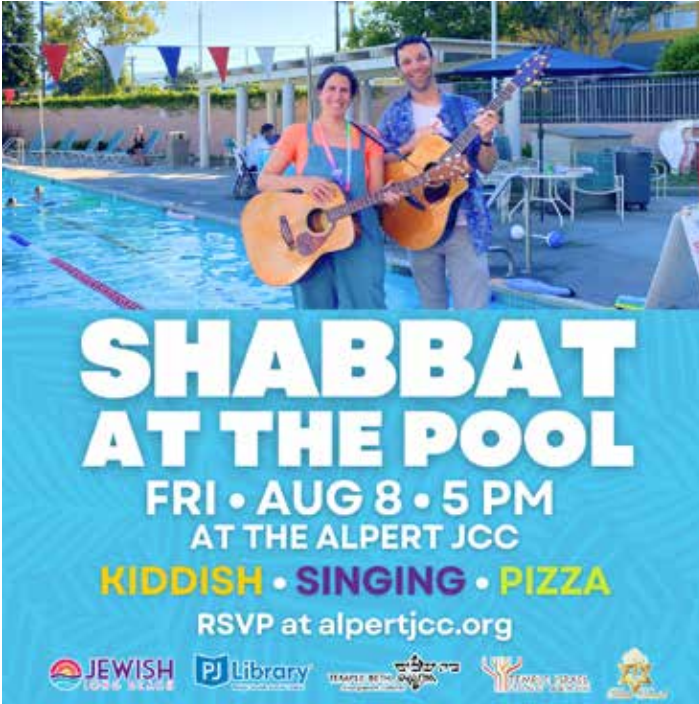

Dylan, who is about to turn 13, is heading into eighth grade and has been doing very well in school. He is naturally curious and loves asking questions about the world around him. While he is competitive like his brother, Dylan has a gentle approach, preferring to learn, explore, and connect with others. He has built many friendships through sports and his outgoing personality. Like David, Dylan enjoys playing video games and stays active in sports, including baseball. He is also fascinated by basketball and is eager to explore it further. Dylan enjoys going camping, and dirt bike riding.

Both David and Dylan are excellent students who consistently earn good grades. They are incredibly thoughtful and respectful to their two moms, making an effort to show love and appreciation. Their family shares a strong bond and supports each other in every way possible, always teaching the boys the importance of kindness, respect, and making a difference in the world.

The family enjoys a wide variety of activities together, from dirt bike riding and camping to swimming and beach days. They are also Disneyland fanatics, often visiting the park as much as possible. Before COVID, they went almost every weekend; now, with the reservation system, the trips take a little more planning, but the magic remains the same.

INTERFAITH GREETINGS

Year of Engagement

By Roni Love, South Coast Interfaith Council Member

In his summer letter to SCIC members, President Thomas Rosenberg (Temple Beth El, San Pedro) wrote: As we survey our present-day world, we experience a society which is incredibly interconnected – yet filled with polarization and divisiveness. It is a world in dire need of those that have the vision and ability to engage across cultural, racial, political and religious differences, to build bridges of cooperation and compassion. As such, the SCIC embarks to make 2025 a Year of Engagement by providing experiential, informative and thought-provoking programs geared towards deeper engagement with one another.

Several events are soon coming up and I will attempt to inform you of them as they are announced. You may also access SCIC's calendar at www.scinterfaith.org or call the office at 562-983-1665. Events include Service Programs like Feeding the Unhoused in which several of you continue to be of great service along with Thanksgiving Meal Prep which is coming up in November; Celebration Events like the Annual Interfaith Unity Awards Dinner (many Temple members have been recipients); and Education Initiatives like How Do We Talk about Israel & Palestine? (Sept. 28) and Exploring Sacred Spaces (Aug. 24) at the Sikh Center of OC.

President Rosenberg concluded his letter by stating: "we can create spaces in which we can learn from, inspire and help one another" ... something our world sorely needs.

Creating Communities of Compassion among People of Different Faiths & Cultures through Service, Education and Celebration
